Call for Artists

Let your art shine in the heart of Dripping Springs!

We are thrilled to extend a special invitation to our DSAL members to be part of a unique art opportunity:

- As part of Songwriter's Festival weekend, we will have shirts for sale to the general public and provided to our artist volunteers
- Here's your chance to design the graphic that will be seen by all.
- Artists will receive a $250 cash reward.

Theme: Where Music Meets Art
The goal is for the artwork to celebrate the intersection of music, art, and the Texas Hill Country while remaining timeless and wearable beyond a single event year.

Suggested design elements include:

- Acoustic guitars and other music-inspired imagery
- Songwriting themes such as lyrics, notebooks, or musical notes
- Texas Hill Country landscapes
- Wildflowers and native flora
- Oak trees, creeks, rolling hills, and other recognizable Dripping Springs features
- Artistic interpretations of the connection between music and visual art
- Imagery that reflects the creative culture of Dripping Springs

Eligibility - Open to all current members of the DSAL. Submit your photos for consideration here.

Details:

- Original designs only (no AI-generated, stock images, or photos of paintings)
- High-resolution (300+ DPI) required.
- The image will be printed no larger than 11" in width.
- Please save it in a JPG/JPEG format for submission.
    - Note that the selected final artwork file type might differ.
- No limit to the number of colors. The image will be printed on a light colored t-shirt.
- The DSAL has the right to ask for modifications to designs.
- There is no submission fee, and artists may submit up to three entries. Click here to begin the application process. Please note that all images and details must also be submitted by July 24th.
